Ref: OFHA - 5432, 6 February 1962

Attachment A: From Report of What CORNELL Learned about NTS During Trip through Europe, fall 1960.

LARIONOV is now working in National Constitutional Defense, police force engaged in counter espionage. LARIONOV has no official position, but enjoys complete confidence and is paid 1,000 DM monthly.

ARTYUK is connected with former Nazis through Deutsche Reichspartei, his newspaper, Russia's Voice, is hostile to France, U.S.A., Adenauer's policies, but his political views often change with a change in Soviet policies... ARTYUK is without doubt a Soviet agent. LARIONOV has documentary proof of this. ARTYUK gets financial support from Deutschebund and unlimited funds from the USSR.

In 1956 or 1957, one Margot WILKIN (worked for the Gestapo as a clandestine agent; after the war for AIS, and in 1949 was a Soviet intelligence agent) tried to establish intimate contact with LARIONOV.

KANDAUROV and LARIONOV have stated that a book store in Munich, called "Slavik," is a Soviet spy headquarters; a woman, fnu HEBER, suspected Soviet I. S. agent, works there.

LARIONOV and KAROV also consider one LOMAKOVSKIY to be a Soviet agent (he deals in icons). ~~STAL~~ there is no clear evidence against him so a decision was made to "process" him.
